European Startup Network (ESN)

The European Startup Network (ESN) is a Brussels-based NGO whose long term vision is to ensure a unified voice for, and thus unified action on behalf of European startups and scaleups.

ESN provides space for national startup associations to share best practices, and stays on top of key issues like regulation on advanced technologies. ESN also takes concrete action to ensure that startups and scaleups have a path to scale, fostering access to funding, opportunities to share best practices.

ESN is in close contact with the European institution to advise them on legislative developments affecting startups.
