

Transilvania Digital Innovation Hub

Transilvania Digital Innovation Hub works strategically to catalyze regional innovation potential and capabilities. It also acts as provider of competences, know-how, innovation programs and support for startups and SMEs.

Among our purposes: accelerating the digital transformation through innovation of industries and public sector, strategic incorporation of technical and technological progress, digital innovation and new strategies for industries and the public sector, digital skills and competences for the future of work and society, future models (a framework for future models for society and digital economy).

- Collaboration facilitated
- Matchmaking activities executed

Flagships

Budget/Financing

5.050.000€

Public Private Grant Other

