

Pension funds to be able to invest in alternative investment funds like PE and VC.

Geographical distribution

Bulgarian Startup Association (BESCO)

Bridging series B onwards investments through involving more institutional investors, like the pension funds, and their extended ability to invest in alternative investment funds such as private equity and venture capital funds.

Flagships

Budget/Financing

Advocacy organisation / governmental efforts

- | | | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------------|
| Public | Private | Grant | Other |
| <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |

Description

Deliverables and milestones

We believe that If pension are funds are allowed to allocate a larger portion of their portfolios to alternative investment funds - risk capital can easily be doubled (specifically in the Bulgarian case, we are looking into allowing for the pension funds to be able to increase their portfolio up to 5% of the total assets their managing, currently 1%, and thereafter doubling the available risk capital)